

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College
Course Content Summary

Course Prefix and Number: SDV 101

Credits: 1

Course Title: Orientation to Teacher Preparation

Course Description: Introduces students to the skills which are necessary to achieve their academic goals, to services offered at the college, and to teacher preparation. Covers topics such as the following: services and resources at the college; the library; counseling and advising; listening, test taking, and study skills; learning styles; career and personal development; and topical areas which are applicable to teacher preparation. Lecture 1 hour per week.

General Course Purpose: SDV 101 - Orientation to Teacher Preparation is a requirement in the General Studies Specialization in Elementary Education, Liberal Arts AA - Teacher Preparation Specialization and the Social Science AS - Teacher Preparation Specialization. While not required for the Science AS - Teacher Preparation Specialization, it is recommended. The course serves two main purposes: (1) it prepares students to successfully transition to college, and (2) introduces them to the career of teaching.

Course Prerequisites and Co-requisites: None

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon completing the course, the student will be able to

- a. Identify and successfully apply at least two techniques related to each of following transition areas: note taking, reading comprehension, test taking and time management.
- b. Identify at least five resources available to Reynolds student and how to access those resources.
- c. Identify specific educational and professional requirements associated with transfer into a four-year college or university in a teaching field as well as licensure regulations (including Praxis and VCLA).
- d. Reflect upon their personal motivation for teaching and the responsibilities of being a teacher.
- e. Identify the “next steps” in their college and career paths and course options for subsequent semesters.
- f. Research and compare potential employers, including urban, rural and suburban options to identify the benefits of each.

Major Topics to Be Included:

- a. Career development
- b. Study skills and styles
- c. Policies and procedure of the institution
- d. Academic advising

Date Created/Updated: August 16, 2020