Over 10,000 enroll at JSRCC for Fall Semester

RICHMOND, Va. (August 23, 2007) – Welcomed by new building renovations, a remodeled testing center, shuttle service between the Downtown and Parham Road Campuses and near completion of the Library and Technology Center, more than 10,000 students started the fall semester at J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College this week.

With three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa, students in the Greater Richmond area are taking advantage of new guaranteed transfer programs, dual enrollment opportunities and distance education courses.

Over the next couple of weeks, numerous academic assistance programs and social events have been established, including the Office of Student Life hosting “Welcome Back” celebrations on each campus. Many students will also attend a sponsored bus trip to the Washington Redskins football game when the Skins face the New York Giants later this month.

Serving over 17,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia.
