JSRCC's Shutt selected as national Outstanding First-Year Student Advocate

Richmond, Va. (March 18, 2010) - J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College's Sarah Shutt has been selected as a 2010 Outstanding First-Year Student Advocate by the National Resource Center for the First-Year Experience and Cengage Learning.

The award, now in its twenty-first year, honors college faculty, administrators and staff for their outstanding work on behalf of first-year students and for the impact their efforts have on the students and culture of their institutions. Ten award recipients were chosen across the country.

Serving as the Counselor for Retention Services, Shutt has been at the College for over 10 years.

Serving over 18,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of the 23 Community Colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Hanover, Henrico, Goochland, Louisa and Powhatan.
