J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College to host Book Discussion on “Like Water for Chocolate”

RICHMOND, Va. (January 31, 2012) – J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College will host another “Around the World Through Books” discussion on Thursday, February 16 from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Gallery in Georgiadis Hall on the Parham Road Campus.

The session will feature Like Water for Chocolate, by Laura Esquivel – a story about a young girl named Tita who has always known her destiny: to remain single and care for her aging mother. When she falls in love, her mother quickly scotches the liaison and tyrannically dictates that Tita's sister Rosaura must marry the luckless suitor, Pedro, in her place. But Tita has one weapon left-- her cooking.

The program is a free community event sponsored by JSRCC's Multicultural Enrichment Council for the purpose of encouraging cultural diversity throughout the Reynolds campuses and communities. For more information about this event and the forum series please contact Ashley Bourne at (804) 523-5170 or visit www.reynolds.edu.

Serving over 21,000 students annually, J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the youngest and third largest of 23 community colleges in Virginia. The College operates three campuses serving residents in the City of Richmond and the counties of Henrico, Hanover, Goochland, Powhatan and Louisa.
