Out-of-state Licensure and Certification

Reynolds has entered into a regional reciprocity agreement through NC-SARA to accept out-of-state students in our online programs and courses.

Reynolds’ Student Complaint Policy is described on the Student Policies webpage and within the catalogue. Reynolds strives to provide the highest quality educational opportunities available. However, if a conflict does arise, our efforts are meant to resolve grievances, complaints, and concerns in an expeditious, fair, and amicable manner. Students should follow carefully the steps outlined in the Student Complaint Policy to ensure proper and timely resolution of their complaint. Complaints must follow the college’s customary resolution procedure prior to being referred to SCHEV.

The following information is intended to publicly disclose any Reynolds program, no matter the method of delivery, designed to meet educational requirements for specific professional licensure or certification that is required for employment or is marketed as such. Reynolds has not yet determined that the programs noted below meet the licensing requirements for the states and U.S. territories other than Virginia. Prior to enrolling in a program at Reynolds leading to external licensure or certification, we recommend that a student contact the state board or agency of the program in the state they wish to practice for the most complete and up-to-date information pertaining to licensure and certification. In addition to educational requirements, an agency or board may require additional criteria be met for licensure.
