Reynolds Preview Day slated for Saturday, January 7

Richmond, Va. (December 20, 2016) – Reynolds Community College will host Preview Day on Saturday, January 7, 2017 from 9 a.m. to noon in the Lipman Auditorium of the Massey Library and Technology Center on the college’s Parham Road Campus located at 1651 E. Parham Road in Richmond.

Preview Day is an opportunity for prospective students to apply to the college, take placement tests, meet with an advisor, learn about scholarships and financial aid and register for spring semester classes. Students will also have the opportunity to speak with university transfer admissions specialists about transferring from Reynolds to a 4-year institution. The 4-year college representatives at Preview Day will serve on a panel and later speak with students directly about the transfer process to their prospective institutions.

This is also a great opportunity to meet program faculty and college staff who are dedicated to student success. Students who participate in this Preview Day event will have a jump on preparing for a successful start at Reynolds Community College.

Reynolds registration for the 2017 spring semester is currently open through the start of classes on January 9th - students can register 24 hours per day online by visiting www.reynolds.edu. Students can also register in-person in Enrollment Services located on each campus from January 3 to January 7.
