COMPUTER SCIENCE INSTRUCTORS

(POSITION NO. FO407 and FO232)

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College is the third largest community college in Virginia and offers a variety of programs and services to the residents of the City of Richmond and five surrounding counties. Annually, our three campuses serve over 19,000 credit students and provide training for an additional 11,000 students through the Community College Workforce Alliance. During our 44-year history we have educated more than 300,000 people in the Richmond area. Additional information is available at the College’s Website: www.reynolds.edu.

Reynolds is seeking applicants who share in its commitment to students and teamwork. The College supports a culture of life-long learning, celebrating its diversity, and recruiting and retaining star quality employees. These positions will be assigned to the School of Mathematics, Science and Engineering, located on the Downtown Campus, 700 East Jackson Street.

TYPE OF APPOINTMENT: Full-time nine-month teaching faculty-ranked appointment. Salary commensurate with the education and experience of the applicant. Salary range: $42,501 - $71,595. Approximate maximum hiring salary: $51,000; additional compensation may be available to the candidate appointed to the program head responsibilities.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED: Master's degree in Computer Science; or Master’s degree with 18 graduate semester hours in Computer Science. The selected candidate must be able to successfully pass the college's pre-employment security screening.

QUALIFICATIONS PREFERRED: Advanced level doctoral work in Computer Science preferred. Knowledge of a variety of instructional technology applications, such as the Blackboard learning management system. Wide range of coursework and/or teaching experience throughout Computer Science subject areas. Community college teaching experience. Related occupational experience or teaching experience in one or more college level courses including occupational-technical, and university-college transfer. Demonstrated experience in curriculum development; and distance learning instruction course development/teaching. Demonstrated ability to employ multiple teaching strategies to create student-centered classrooms. Demonstrated ability to utilize strong written and oral communication skills. Demonstrated ability to work with a diverse population of college faculty, staff and students.

POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES: The primary responsibility is teaching. Faculty hired in this position will be required to teach courses in the transfer and non-transfer areas. Faculty loads are normally scheduled on an average of fifteen (15) credit hours per semester. Office hours, advising and collateral duty assignments are maintained. Teaching schedules may include day and evening classes and multiple campus and off-campus assignments. Opportunities for summer teaching will be based on student interest.

APPLICATION PROCESS: Application reviews will begin JULY 21, 2016, and will be accepted until the position is filled.
